Washington Dispatches

Proceedings of Both the Senate and House.

THE DAY SPENT IN LONG DEBATES

Correction of the Congressional Record—Furnishes the Topic of Discussion in the Upper Branch—Several Public Building Bills Passed—Other National News.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The senate yesterday debated at length the resolution to correct the report in the congressional record of the speech made by Mr. Call, on the political assassinations in Florida.

The credentials of Mr. Allison for his new term were presented and filed.

Mr. Morrill offered a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the secretary of the treasury to report any information in his possession in regard to the authorization of a lottery company, by the Indian Territory government, of the Creek nation.

Mr. Hoar called up the resolution of the committee on privileges and elections to eliminate from the record sentences interpolated by Mr. Call in his report of his remarks in debate with Mr. Chandler some weeks ago.

Mr. George said the resolution was without a precedent, the debate had been characterized by extreme acrimony and bitter personal allusions. He argued that while there was a verbal change in Mr. Call's remarks, there was no change of meaning. He admitted that Mr. Call's reference to "Banquo's ghost" was in bad taste. There had been a time when personalities in the senate had led to personal conflict. But now there was no safer place in God's creation for a man who desired to insult another with impunity. It was no evidence of want of courage that a senator about whom insulting language had been used on the floor did not call the speaker to a personal account. How, then, was the senator from New Hampshire injured? Why in the act that he had not the fisherman's opportunity to be a black-guard lack

Mr. Hoar said that the senator from Mississippi misunderstood the resolution. He himself acquitted the senator from Florida of any desire to escape censure or responsibility. He did not think it true that there was no substantial change made in the remarks. Mr. Hoar alluded to some jesting remarks made by Mr. George, and said that the senator from Mississippi took a comic almanac view of the lamentable public occurrence which had given rise to this proceeding. He did not propose that a nun's chamber at midnight should be a safer place than the floor of the senate from which to send out poisonous arrows.

Mr. Eustis said that the order asked by the committee implied a caucus.

Mr. Edmunds asked Mr. Eustis whether he defended the propriety of printing a paragraph which had not been uttered in the presence of the senator to whom it alluded.

Mr. Eustis wanted to know what the committee had found Mr. Call guilty of. Certainly not on the falsification of the record, or that he had violated the custom of the senate, for on this the committee was absolutely silent. There was not, he said, a single exaggeration in what was inserted in the record as compared with what was publicly uttered on the floor. The language was not the same but the accusation was the same, although he confessed that the language inserted in the record was probably a little more flowery than the language uttered on the floor.

Mr. Edmunds proceeded to explain the point of the arguments to which he applied his allusions to the Louisiana election. He said Mr. Call had, in a moment of warmth or heat, so far forgot himself as to cause to be printed an apparently carefully drawn up statement, imputing to the senator from another state and in new language, a crime—a concerted and systematized crime. He thought that the senator from Florida had so far transgressed the right of correction, and even of embroidery, that he ought to stand up like a man and take whatever was implied in the resolution, saying that that sort of things should not be done any more.

Mr. Gray, a Democratic member of the committee on privileges and elections, defended the action of the committee in reporting the resolution, and said that he had supposed it would have been accepted on both sides as the most orderly and the best considered way of dealing with the subject matter. It was not intended, he said, to imply a scintilla of censure on the senator from Florida.

Mr. Pugh, another Democratic member of the committee concurred in what Mr. Gray had said.

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, stated he heard the remarks of Mr. Call, and that he remembered distinctly his charging the senator from New Hampshire with responsibility for the murder of hundreds of women and children in the southern states.

Mr. Evans, a member of the committee, defended the resolution as reported, and said that the senate could not afford to be indifferent to such an interference with the absolute correctness and reliability of the record.

Mr. Vance, a Democrat of the committee, also defended the action but said that nothing was further from his intention than to cast any reflection on the senator from Florida.

Mr. Vance spoke of the constant attacks in the senate upon the people of the southern states and reminded senators that they could not always expect the representatives of those states to imitate the wisdom of that great American philosopher, Josh Billings, who said that the little things of life were more troublesome than the great things, and that fleas had given him a great deal more trouble than elephants.

Mr. Call submitted some remarks in his own vindication, and quoted some of Mr. Chandler's expressions in the same debate, imputing to him the possibility of provoking homicide and adding to "the silent voters of Florida," and assured the senate that he had no idea of violating its rules.

A vote was then taken on the resolution, and resulted, yeas, 27; nays, 11. No quorum. Messrs. Gray, Pugh, Turpie and Vance, Democrats, voted in the affirmative.

Without disposing of the matter the senate at 5:20 p. m. adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The house passed the bills to provide for the erection of public buildings at the following points: Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Chester, Pa.; Columbus, Ga.; Atchison, Kan.; Alexandria, La.; Hamilton, Mo.; Lynn, Mass.; Lafayette, Ind.; Baton Rouge, La. and Fremont, Neb.; also bills providing for increase of the limit of cost of public buildings at Newark, N. J.; Scranton, Pa.; Troy, N. Y.; Dallas, Tex., and Springfield, Mo. The measures passed involve an expenditure of $1,845,000.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, moved to discharge the committee on invalid pensions from the further consideration as a resolution calling on the secretary of the interior for information relating to the administration of the pension office under ex-Commissioner Tanner, and what steps had been taken to recover money paid to pension office employees who were illegally related.

Mr. Enloe said the country desired this information, but that the committee had taken no action on the resolution which he had offered early in the session. Tanner had kept the promises he had made on the stump and the country wanted to know the reasons why he had been kicked out.

Mr. Morrill, of Kansas, chairman, and Chipman, of Michigan, a member of the committee, said they had never before heard of the resolution and that the clerk of the committee said it had never been presented to him. In view of these statements Mr. Enloe withdrew his motion.

Mr. Baker, of New York, from the committee on territories, reported the bill for the admission of Wyoming and asked for its immediate consideration.

Mr. Springer raised the question of consideration and opposed it, with a motion to adjourn, which was defeated. Finally the house took up the bill in committee of the whole, and pending discussion the committee rose and the house, at 5:20 p. m., adjourned.

Military Reservation Abandoned.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Secretary Proctor has issued an order turning over the abandoned military reservation of Fort Selden, N. M., containing about fifteen square miles, or about 137,361 acres, to the secretary of the interior.

The Chinese Exclusion Act.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Attorney General Miller has decided that under the law Chinese merchants cannot land in the United States in the absence of certificates prescribed in the Chinese exclusion act.

KINCAID'S VICTIM.

Death Comes to Ex-Congressman Taulbee After Ten Days' Suffering.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Ex-Congressman Taulbee, of Kentucky, who was shot by Correspondent Kincaid on Friday, the last day of February, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. His death was due directly to the shot. Kincaid has given himself into the hands of the authorities and will be kept in prison until after his trial. The offense is not bailable.

THE SHOOTING OF TAULBEE.

Taulbee did not make an ante-mortem statement, but he expressed the wish on three or four occasions during the past week that the law might take its course in the event of his death, so Kincaid will be prosecuted. His plea will be self-defense. He says he can prove that when Taulbee first assaulted him at the capitol he warned him to arm himself, and that when the two men met on the stairway an hour subsequently Taulbee raised his hand to strike again. This latter part, however, will have to be proven by ex-doorkeeper Donelson, who is a personal friend of both men.

There is universal regret over Mr. Taulbee's death. He was a man without bitter enemies and it was hoped that he would recover, in which event it was understood that Kincaid would not be prosecuted. There is now much sympathy for both men, although the great preponderance of sympathy is on the side of Kincaid, who has conducted himself in a very quiet and gentlemanly way since the fatal affair.

Arranging a Wolf Hunt.

MT. PLEASANT, Iowa, March 12.—A conference of sportsmen and farmers was held here Friday to complete the arrangements for a big wolf hunt to take place on Saturday. The farmers have suffered severely during the winter by the depredations of these animals, who have multiplied four-fold in number since last fall, and a vigorous effort to exterminate them will be made.

The Wales Disaster.

Fire Still Raging in the Wrecked Mine.

NO HOPE FOR THE ENTOMBED MEN

It is Now Believed That at Least One Hundred and Fifty Lives Were Lost. Crusade Against Germans in Paris. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, March 12.—The fire which is raging in the wrecked Morsa colliery, in Glamorgan, Wales, is rapidly spreading to all parts of the mine, and the recovery of the bodies still entombed is regarded as hopeless. The latest estimate of the number killed is 150.

Four of the miners who were entombed by the explosion have made their escape from the pit without assistance. They crawled through a crevice between the roof of the mine and the debris. They report that they passed over a number of dead men lying in heaps, and say they believe that none of those in the pit is still alive.

Dynamite Guns.

BIRMINGHAM, March 12.—The dynamite gun and torpedo thrower in course of construction here by Lieut. James W. Graydon, late of the United States navy, is attracting considerable attention. The gun is of fifteen inches calibre, and is expected to be capable of throwing 600 pounds of dynamite a distance of three miles. A public demonstration will be made early in May under the auspices of the English government. Official representatives of Russia, Italy, Spain, Turkey and Roumania are awaiting the result of the experiment with much interest.

Crusade Against Germans in Paris.

LONDON, March 12.—A new crusade has been inaugurated against the Germans in Paris, and they will have a very uncomfortable time until the periodical alarm about them dies away. They now mostly represent themselves as Alsacians, Swiss and Belgians, and generally manage to avert suspicion by the intense French feeling they evince. The very best waiters in the best restaurants in Paris are Germans, and, contrary to the French, they are decidedly not spies in the employ of Bismarck.

Cabinet Changes.

PESTH, March 12.—The conference held yesterday between the emperor, Herr Von Tisza and Count Von Szapary to consider the ministerial situation, resulted in Herr Von Tisza definitely resigning his office of Hungarian prime minister and the appointment of Count Von Szapary to succeed him. No other changes were made in the cabinet.

France at the Labor Conference.

PARIS, March 12.—The cabinet has decided to send Senators Jules Simon and Tolain, M. Burdeau, a member of the chamber of deputies; M. Linden, an inspector of mines, and M. Delhay, a mechanic, as the representatives of France at the international labor conference at Berlin.

Municipal Government Dissolved.

LISBON, March 12.—A decree was issued yesterday dissolving the municipal government of Lisbon, and appointing a commission to administer the city's affairs pending reforms which the government is considering.

Emin Pasha's New Field.

BERLIN, March 12.—The Vossische Zeitung says that east Africa and southwest Africa will be made imperial colonies, and that the government of the former will be administered by Emin Pasha.

Foreign Notes.

Sliver ore in quantities has been discovered at Nagai, near Ekaterinodar, Russia.

It is semi-officially announced that the new reichstag will be convened on April 15. Dr. Kopp, bishop of Breslau, has been appointed a delegate to the Berlin labor conference.

The firm of Browne and Wingrove, netters and refiners and dealers in bullion, London, have failed. Their liabilities are £300,000.

Herr Vohsen, German consul at Zanzibar, has concluded on behalf of the German East Africa company, in which he is a director, a treaty highly favorable to the Germans.

A LIBERAL GIFT.

An Indianapolis Man Gives a College $100,000.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 12.—Simon Yandes, of Indianapolis, proposed to several Indianapolis gentlemen that he would give $20,000 to a new library building for Wabash college, in this city, if they would give similar sums. Two gentlemen each offered $5,000 and others many yet come forward.

In the meantime Mr. Yandes had concluded to do something on his own account, and yesterday he wrote three checks amounting to $50,000, payable to the treasurer of Wabash college. Twenty thousand dollars go to the general endowment, which makes that fund exceed $200,000 and $30,000 are for the new library building.

Plans of the new building are in the hands of an architect. It will be a fire-proof structure of brick and stone. Mr. Yandes gave $10,000 to the general endowment fund in 1888, and last October endowed the department of English literature with $40,000. Altogether he has given the college $100,000.

Vice President Morton in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 12.—Vice President Morton and wife were entertained by the city Monday, having been escorted from St. Augustine by a committee of citizens. After being shown the various points of interest, luncheon was served, at which the mayor, Mr. Morton and others made informal speeches. The visitors returned to St. Augustine Monday night.

G. A. R. MEETING.

Eleventh Annual Convention Held at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 12.—The state encampment, G. A. R., convened yesterday in its eleventh annual session with nearly 600 delegates in attendance. Commander Travis delivered his annual address, showing that there are now 25,165 members in the organization, an increase of 1,544 in the past year. This association has $2,865, and during the year $772 was sent to the Johnstown sufferers, $305 to orphans' homes, and $5,357 was expended in general relief.

The commander made a strong appeal in favor of liberal pension legislation. Gen. Alger followed in a brief address, in which he said that he wanted it understood that he was speaking to Grand Army men and not to the public. The injunction to secrecy, however, was disregarded by the veterans, and his remarks were fully reported on the outside. He said that he was strongly in favor of a service pension law, and gave the ingalls and Cheadle bills his unqualified indorsement.

He criticized the action of congress severely, and declared that there had always been concerted action in that body to defeat pension legislation, and that it was time for a change. He recommended concerted action on the part of the ex-soldiers, and said that congress could not afford to ignore their demands. Alger's position on this question appears to have been in doubt, and his utterances were loudly applauded.

The camp fire was held last night, and Alger and others made speeches. The election of officers will occur to-day, and candidates for commander are quite numerous. Yesterday G. R. Stormont, of Princeton, who has been so long at the head of the Service Pension association, announced himself for the place, and his vote will be a fine test of the sentiments of the Grand Army on the question. He is making a special light on that ground and has many supporters.

The annual convention of the Women's Relief Corps of the state also assembled yesterday morning. Mrs. Meyerhoff, state president, submitted her addresses, in which she showed that there are now 130 corps in the state, with a membership of 4,915, an increase of twenty-eight posts and 991 members. A total of $5,430 was expended in relief, the number of beneficiaries being 1,742.

The convass for president of the organization is becoming very warm, and other candidates are entering the race. Mrs. Haushalter, of Anderson, has announced herself, but the majority appear to think that Mrs. Caylor, of Noblesville, will be elected.

The Service Pension association continued its session yesterday, electing officers as follows for the ensuing year: President, Gill R. Stormont, of Princeton; vice president, James Grimesley, of Gosport; secretary, C. A. Power, of Terre Haute; treasurer, M. C. Rankin, of Terre Haute.

In returning thanks for their election some of the officers were very vehement in their denunciations of the present attitude of congress on pension legislation. One declared not a man would be returned to that body who voted against service pensions.

After indorsing Governor Hovey as their candidate for the United States senate and eulogizing his recent efforts in their behalf, the convention adjourned.

Wife's Paramour Dangerously Slashed.
HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., March 12.—A man whose name is not known pursued and overtook his guilty wife and her lover, a man named Henry Collum, at Cave Springs, when he drew his knife and cut Collum in a most terrible manner, severing an artery and leaving him for dead. The man then escaped, leaving his wife behind. Owing to the deep gashes in his back and side Collum is not expected to recover.

The Value of a Minute.

FLEMINGSBURG, Ky., March 12.—Dr. C. E. Proctor, a wealthy physician of Mt. Carmel, this county, died a few days ago of grippe. A short time ago he married a wealthy widow, who transferred to him all her property. It is now given out that on his deathbed he caused a will to be written giving everything to his widow and her children by her first marriage, but in the act of signing he died, so his brothers inherit and the widow is left nearly penniless. One minute more of life to him would have meant riches to her.

Expelled From the Society.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Maj. Hancock Clark, the man who shot Milton Randolph as a result of a quarrel at the Southern society, a short time ago, was last night expelled from the society, after an investigation of the charges against him. Randolph on the other hand was acquitted and exonerated.

Arrested for Forgery.

CHILLICOTHE, O., March 12.—William Seifert, a prominent tailor of this place, was arrested yesterday for forging the name of his father-in-law, V. Dersam, to a note.

Jacob S. Keifar was bound over at Lexington Ky. He was charged with having in his possession a stock certificate belonging to the Belt Line Railroad company.

The flood situation in the valleys below Memphis is becoming serious. The St. Francis and Tensas basins are threatened with inundation. The Sappington crevasse is already 200 feet wide, and an entire county is under water.

Mayor Scott, of Laporte, Ind., claims to have discovered a shortage of $5,000 in the accounts of Herman Hausher, formerly city treasurer, who has been dead for several years. The alleged shortage is believed to be an error.

Senator Stanford has introduced a resolution in the senate favoring loans of public money to farmers on real estate security at 1 or 2 per cent. interest as a means of relieving the embarrassment of the agricultural industries.

Who Advocates Ballot Reform.

"Who advocates Ballot Reform with the official ballot the leading feature?" asks the Covington Commonwealth.

"Grover Cleveland, the Democratic standard bearer, in the lead; followed by the Democratic Governors of New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Iowa, Tennessee and Georgia.

"The Democratic party in Louisville is enthusiastic in commendation of ballot reform as embodied in the Wallace Law. The Democratic press of Louisville, the Courier-Journal, the Times, the Post, are heartily in accord on the Wallace Law. The Commercial, a Republican organ, opposes it.

"The Democratic House of Delegates of West Virginia passed a bill embodying the essential features of the Australian system, and the Republican Senate defeated it.

"A Democratic Legislature of Indiana two years ago adopted the system, and the Republican State Central Committee proposes to test the matter in the courts, and defeat it if possible.

"Benjamin F. Butler, who was a delegate to the Chicago Convention which nominated Cleveland, and who, a candidate himself, bolted the convention, and ran as an independent candidate, backed by Tammany Hall, opposes ballot reform.

"Charles A. Dana, who bolted Cleveland and supported Butler in the Sen, opposes ballot reform.

"David Bennett Hill, Governor of New York, who trafficked with Quay and sold out the Democratic party to Harrison that he might retain the Governorship, opposes ballot reform.

"Murat Halstead opposes ballot reform. The Republican party opposes ballot reform.

How is it in Kentucky?

"The Paducah News demands the Wallace Law for Paducah; the Park City Times demands it for Bowling Green; the Maysville BULLETIN for Maysville; the Williamstown Courier demands it for Williamstown; the Democratic press of Louisville upholds it; the Winchester Democrat advocates it—and the list might be indefinitely extended."

The House of Representatives at Washington City passed "public building" bills yesterday that will take nearly two million dollars out of the Treasury. At this rate that surplus will soon disappear.

The New York World significantly asks: "When any industry can afford to export its products and sell in the foreign market cheaper than the foreign mill-owner, from what and from whom does it need protection in this country?"

THERE were six convicts paroled from the penitentiary last week and every one of these was doing time for manslaughter. Why not keep behind the walls those who have "dipped their hands in human blood," and release other classes of criminals?

SOME member of the Legislature has introduced a bill to pay witnesses $1 a day at examining trials in felony cases. If passed, this measure will cost the State thousands of dollars every year, and prove one of the most expensive acts of the present session. It should be killed.

MR. RYAN, who was sent as United States Minister to Mexico by the present Republican administration, recently made a report to the State Department at Washington in which he states that with such unrestricted trade as the States of the Union enjoy between themselves, Mexico would purchase $100,000,000 a year from us which she now spends with English and German business men and manufacturers. He advises absolute free trade between the United States and Mexico. It remains to be seen whether a Republican Congress will listen to the report of this Republican Minister.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLEIK.

Movers are on the wing, changing their nests.

John S. Moran has sold his house and lot to James McElroy for $300.

Miss Jennie Evans is visiting the family of C. C. Hopper, in Maysville.

Alex. Dougherty, of Bourbon County, is visiting his many friends here.

On Friday morning the ground was frozen hard, and ice three inches thick in tubs.

A good many have filed their ice houses during the last cold snap—mostly snow ice.

C. M. Teeters, of Keokuk, Iowa, has been visiting his uncle, Dr. W. H. Lawwill, for the past week. He left for his home Wednesday last.

The tobacco buyers are picking up all the little lumpy crops of tobacco through the county, but are slow on the larger ones.

Dr. W. H. Lawwill's sale came off last Friday. It was well attended and good prices obtained. The day was cold and unpleasant.

Willie Shanklin has bought a farm three miles from Shelbyville, Shelby County, and moved there this week. We lose a good citizen.

Several new silver mines have been discovered in Eastern Kentucky. 'Tis predicted that the horses in the near future will be shod with silver shoes.

Dr. Dawson, of Cincinnati, has been called to the bedside of Mrs. W. E. Pogue, and has also been waiting on Judge John T. Wilson, who has been quite poorly for some days.

BERNARD.

Mr. Charles L. Walker, agent for McNary & Co.'s nursery, has established his headquarters at this place.

Mrs. Annie E. Montjoy's new house that was burned Saturday night is supposed to have been set on fire.

There has been several notices of white caps posted in this neighborhood in the last two weeks, much to the disgust of the entire community. The parties that are perpetrating this outrage are known, and unless it is stopped there will be some arrests.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1 bottles by leading druggists.

Reading was still the feature on the Stock Exchange this morning. All the excitement connected with the dealings in the stock yesterday had died out, but there was still some heavy sales, and cash deliveries of the stock continued at a premium as high as 1/4 per cent. at one time. Union Pacific was the next most active stock. The first prices were somewhat irregular. Reading opened 1/2 lower at 34, and sold down to 33 1/2, but afterwards rallied to last night's figures, when the cash stock advanced to 40 1/2. At 11 o'clock prices were irregular, but slightly changed. In the hour to noon there was some buying of Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, Wheeling and Lake Erie, under whose lead an advance of 1/8 to 1/4 per cent. was established by noon.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3,403 hds., with receipts for the same period of 1,877 hds. Sales on our market since January 1 amount to 30,279 hds. Sales on our market up to this date of the crop of 1889 amount to 19,605 hds.

Receipts of the new crop have been somewhat curtailed this week by reason of the unfavorable weather conditions for handling tobacco. Sales, however, continue liberal and prices are fully sustained on all grades with a slight improvement in values for low grade color tobacco.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco, crop of 1889: Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco—$1.00@3.00.

AN excellent portrait of Miss Elva Ward, of East Second street, is to be seen in the window at the postoffice drug store. It is a crayon, and is the work of Mrs. Ireland, of Cincinnati. It is pronounced as durable as an oil painting. Mrs. Ireland also works in oil, water colors and pastel.

THERE is considerable talk again among Maysville's enterprising business men of organizing a Commercial Club, or Chamber of Commerce. Undoubtedly, an organization of that character could do much good in advancing the city's interests. Winchester's Commercial Club has done wonders in pushing that place to the front, and the same is true of many other towns.

A SPECIAL from Flemingsburg to the Cincinnati Post says: "Dr. O. E. Proctor, a wealthy physician of Mt. Carmel, died a few days ago of grippe. A short time since he married a wealthy widow, who transferred to him all her property. It is now given out that on his death-bed he caused a will to be written giving everything to his widow and her children by her first marriage, but in the act of signing he died, so his brothers inherit and the widow is left nearly penniless. One minute more of life to him would have meant riches to her."

An attorney of this city says such a will is considered good.

NEWS FROM FRANKFORT.

Items of Interest Gleaned from the Proceedings of the Legislature

Over 1,100 bills have so far been introduced in the House.

The Committee on Criminal Laws decided to report unfavorably on Representative Blackerby's pool-room bill, but have since concluded to reconsider the measure.

Representative Clark introduced a bill to pay $1 a day to Commonwealth witnesses in examining trials for felony. Such a law would treble or quadruple the cost of criminal prosecutions, and should never be passed.

A bill is pending to make the law as to distribution of insolvent estates similar to that for the estates of decedents, except that in the winding up of the estates of parties who have attempted to prefer creditors, the rule of bankruptcy shall prevail.

An Act for the Improvement of Colored Education, is the title of a bill introduced by Mr. Settle, of Owen. The bill gives colored scholars the privilege of being taught in normal schools, colleges or academies where the trustees are willing to receive them.

In the Senate Monday morning a bill to abolish the office of State Inspector and Examiner was introduced by Senator Darby, his ground being that if the bill to establish a State Board of Prisons and Charities be passed, as seems likely, there will be no need for such an office.

Mr. Draddy, of Newport, wants to regulate the running and conducting of street railways in Kentucky by requiring both a driver and conductor to be placed on the cars of all companies working in the Commonwealth. Under the bill, the companies can be fined $10 per day for each car run without a conductor.

Senator May obtained leave to introduce a bill to further regulate the duties of the Attorney General and the Commonwealth's Attorneys by requiring the former to attend to the State's business in the courts in and out of the State and making it the duty of the latter to look after the State's business in their own districts. This is aimed at Attorney General Hardin.

One of the most important measures passed so far is that requiring corporations, companies, associations, firms and persons engaged in mining or manufacturing in this state to pay their employees semi-monthly, in lawful money of the United States, prohibiting the issue of scrip, regulating the sale of merchandise and supplies by employers to employees, and providing penalties for violations.

Among the important bills now pending is one to authorize the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to sell the State's interest in all turnpikes in the State and to expend the proceeds to better provide good roads in this Commonwealth. The State expended five millions of dollars for turnpikes, and its interests in them are estimated as actually worth but $500,000. The bill proposes to distribute this for free and permanent gravel roads and turnpikes in those counties which the State has never assisted in building roads. Before any money can be appropriated, however, the county so aided must raise an equal amount on a tax which can not exceed fifteen cents on the $100 in any one year.

A bill is pending which some of the Judges in the mountain counties will be glad to see pass. It is an act to establish a State Criminal Court for the trial of any criminal case on indictment found in any Circuit Court of the State, whenever such case shall be certified to the State court with the statement that it cannot be tried in the court where it was found, because of public feeling. The court may also find indictments whenever it appears that a felony has been committed in any county which cannot be properly investigated by the local court. Grand jurors and petit jurors for the court shall be summoned from the whole State. The Judge of the court shall be elected next August by the voters of the State for a term of four years at a salary of a Circuit Judge. A State Attorney shall also be elected at the same time at a salary of $1,500. The court shall meet at Frankfort.

Railroad News.

It is rumored that the C. & O. are about to dispose of part of their property at Russell to eastern capitalists who contemplate the erection of manufactories.

The working expenses of railroads of the United States are 61 per cent. of the total earnings; in Canada, 78 per cent.; Russia, 70; Germany, 54; Great Britain and France, 52; India, 41; Spain, 47.

The new passenger depot of the Chesapeake & Ohio, at Fourth and Smith streets, Cincinnati, is rapidly approaching completion. The Post says: "To have a passenger station on Fourth street, is a decided innovation on the old order of things. But this is a decade of change in the topographical face of Cincinnati."

A Maysvillian at Middlesborough.

A copy of the Middlesborough News, containing a history of the city and sketches of its business citizens, has been received. In speaking of a former resident of Maysville, it says:

"Charles Anderson Wood is one of the most prominent and live, energetic real estate men within the bounds of Middlesborough. Through his untiring energy and large circle of friends he has induced a large number of people to visit the marvelous city and place their money in property here. He is a man of cool business judgment, and those who have followed his advice in matters of investments have almost invariably realized large profits. He is a calm, deliberate thinker, and never allows himself to become excited or carried away to the jeopardizing his judgment, no matter how high property may run."

"Mr. Wood was born at Maysville, Ky., December 6, 1868, being a son of George T. Wood, a wholesale druggist of that place. His course of education was begun in the high school at Maysville, and the finishing touches were put on at the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., where he graduated in the law department. Mr. Wood commenced the practice of his profession at Maysville in April, 1888, where he remained until he came to Middlesborough in September of the following year. His father and mother still reside in Maysville, the former being one of the most successful business men of that place. One of his brothers is a prominent business man in Cincinnati, being connected with the drug house of Calvert & Brooks."

Mr. Wood has accumulated a considerable amount of money since taking up his residence in Middlesborough, and owns much valuable property in the place. He is a stockholder in some of her principal institutions and stands in the front rank of Middlesborough's young professional business men."

River News.

The M. P. Wells handled sixty passengers one day last week.

There is talk of reducing the ferrage at Ripley to 3 cents each way.

Due up: Louise for Charleston and Telegraph for Pomeroy at midnight.

The coal shipments from Pittsburg last week amounted to 2,863,000 bushels.

The new Keystone State is due down this evening; likewise the Chancellor. The Boston is the midnight packet for Cincinnati.

The Pittsburg Coal Exchange represents 72 steam towboats and mgs, with a freight capacity of 2,437,500 tons, 10,000 employees, and a capital of $15,000,000.

The White Collar Line has bought a half interest in Captain Young's handsome side-wheel packet Rainbow, and has placed her in the Pittsburg trade in place of the Shirley. She passed up this morning. Captain Young will retain command. The Shirley was laid up.

Churches and Preachers.

All are invited to hear Rev. W. J. E. C. x at the First Baptist Church to-night.

Rev. H. T. Daniel, of Paris, is engaged in a successful meeting in the East Baptist Church of Louisville.

Elder J. W. Bullock will visit the church at Mt. Olivet next Sunday, the Tolleboro church the fourth Sunday and the Washington Church the fifth Sunday of this month.

The revival in the Main Street M. E. Church at Covington has been in progress ten weeks, and there have been 135 additions. It is pronounced one of the most remarkable meetings ever held in that city.

Here and There.

Miss Maria Bolinger has returned home after spending the winter in Indiana and Illinois.

Mrs. Ireland, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mrs. Sallie C. Reynolds, of the Fifth ward.

Mrs. Walter B. Brooks and family, of Danville, Va., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Blatterman, on Fourth street.

Fine Merchant Tailoring.

J. Kennier & Son have opened a merchant tailoring establishment in the January building on Sutton street, where they propose to turn out the noblest suits of the season. Perfect fits guaranteed.

In the Soup—Business.

Oxtail, mulligatawny, mock turtle soup and bouilli, 20 cents a can, at Fitzgerald's.

A SNEAK-THIEF entered the hall at Mr. John G. Hickman's residence in the West End Monday evening and carried off that gentleman's overcoat. The family were at supper, and the coat was not missed until Mr. Hickman went to get a paper that had been left in it. The police were notified at once, but the coat has not yet been recovered. It is reported the thief was traced to Augusta yesterday.

Fashions for Women.

Black grenadine dresses will be very fashionable next summer.

Strings of coral, of pink, red and white, and of turquoise beads, will be very much worn with the summer gowns.

Linen shirt fronts, which were never becoming to women, except in exceptional instances, are not likely to be revived this spring.

Aprons have become quite a "fad" since the straight skirts came back, and are made by young ladies for fairs, and bazars in great variety.

French cashmeres will continue in favor for house and street dresses, and are being imported in all spring tints. Fawn, castor, wood browns and grays are the street shades.

Brotherhood Schedule.

Base Ball Magnates Meet in Cleveland.

WHERE THE CLUBS WILL PLAY.

Twenty Thousand Dollars Will Be Given Out in Prizes—The Schedule Reported and Adopted Without Discussion—The Entire Work Finished in One Day.

CLEVELAND, O., March 11.—The opening session of the Brotherhood base ball meeting was called to order in the Weddell house promptly at 10 o'clock. It was presided over by Vice President John Addison, of Chicago. He was relieved by President McAlpine, who arrived shortly before noon. When the meeting opened every club except Brooklyn was represented.

Reports of committees was the first business in order. Among other reports received and adopted there was one from that on playing rules, of which Buck Ewing is chairman, which recommended that the $20,000 to be given as prize money be divided as follows: First prize, $6,250; second prize, $4,800; third prize, $3,500; fourth prize, $2,500; fifth prize, $1,750; sixth prize, $900; seventh prize, $400.

After disposing of the committee reports the meeting approved the staff of umpires selected by the secretary and resolved to purchase for the New York club a handsome flag emblematic of the championship of the season of 1889.

An adjournment was then taken until 3 o'clock.

Upon reassembling the first business in order was the schedule and the following table of dates was adopted without discussion.

BOSTONS AT HOME.

With Brooklyn—April 21, 22, 23, 24; July 17, 18, 19; Aug. 9, 11, 12.

After disposing of the schedule a resolution, allowing home clubs 2 per cent. of the total tickets sold per game, for free passes, was adopted. Each city was authorized to select and order its own printing. A standing auditing committee, consisting of John Addison, of Chicago; Moses Shire, of Buffalo, and Julian B. Hart, of Boston, was appointed, after which a congratulatory telegram from Edward Everett Bell was read.

A contract for three years was entered into with T. J. Keefe, who is to supply the balls for the new League.

It was resolved to uniform the staff of umpires in white, and the secretary was authorized to select a time and place for a consultation with the umpires upon the playing rules. The meeting will probably be held in New York during the first or second week in April.

After the performance of the above business the meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the president.

When asked what had been done with the cases of Dunlap and Mulvey, Secretary Brunell said: "We did nothing at all with Mulvey's case. It was never referred to at all. Dunlap's case was settled, but I can't tell you at this time, in just what way."

It is understood that Dunlap is to go to the New York team.

Buck Ewing yesterday evening offered to trade Dunlap to Al Johnson for Paul Radford, if the Cleveland club would pay Dunlap his salary of $5,000. The offer was declined.

THE SEVENTH OF THE FAMILY.

Another McGregor Child Dies of Diphtheria at Zanesville, O.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 12.—Another McGregor child died of diphtheria, making the seventh member of the family carried away in three weeks. People all over the city have become alarmed, and the board of health held a special secret meeting last night.

Dr. Kennedy, who attended the McGregor family, was also physician to the family of Police Lieutenant Brown, whose wife and child died last Wednesday. The cause of Mrs. Brown's death was given as tonsillitis, but four cases of diphtheria have since developed in families of relatives, who were intimate with the family and were at the funeral.

The board of health is being severely denounced for its conduct of diphtheria cases, and last night it decided to place all the blame on the bringing of the body of the Tuttle child from Chicago under a false death certificate, in December. Undertakers, however, do not endorse this, and Undertaker Bateman told your correspondent that he had buried Charles Geyer last November, and the young man had the worst case of diphtheria he ever saw, as his neck was fairly putrid. He was buried in the country and the funeral was public.

After that the five Garner children died in Perry township. Of forty-five city cases reported to the board of health in four months there have been fifteen deaths, and Officer Sutton told your correspondent last week that only six were traceable to infection brought from Chicago. During the prevalence of the disease two years ago diphtheria developed only in houses on certain streets where well water was used, and the same rule is almost invariable now, for where there is exception contagion can be traced.

ATTENTION, FARMERS!

Save your horses and money by using the Blair Separable Collar.

This Collar is opened at the bottom, and commands the attention of every owner of a horse upon the following facts: First—It prevents breaking the Collar at the throat. Second—It avoids the moving of sweat-pads from the Collar.

Third—The advantages of putting on a Collar with this fastener, in cases where the horse is troublesome, is very great. As for strength, it is simply perfect. Come and examine it. It is a first-class, all-wool kip, and the price is the same as an ordinary Collar. Every Collar warranted and satisfaction guaranteed. For sale by
